

Touring IRELAND WITH BRACK

There is so much to see and do in Ireland, and very often travelers don't know exactly where to go or have time to put together the ideal itinerary. If this is the case, the best solution is often to turn to travel experts to share with you an impressive range of group tour opportunities that open up a world of options.

One of our favorite tour operators is Brack Tours. With offices in Dublin, Newry, Co. Down and Dover, NH, and a professional staff with 80+ years of experience in the travel industry, Brack's guiding principle is 'Ireland Your Way.' Brack understands what American travelers want when they go abroad, and its customer satisfaction and returning clients are a testament to Brack's commitment to customer service.

Brack has a number of exclusive tours in 2024, including Ireland's Wild Atlantic Way, Taste of Ulster, Ireland's Enchanting Southwest, Tales of Three Cities and Autumn Adventure.

Brack Tours is offering our readers a $100 discount per person for its Exclusive Tours in 2024. Use BRACKBITA in your correspondence, and here's to a great journey!

MYTHICAL & MYSTICAL TOUR

Looking for a spiritual adventure in Ireland this spring? Irish storyteller Joe Keane is organizing a small group of seven people to visit Ireland's sacred sites this May to celebrate the festival of Bealtaine.

The goal of the tour, says Joe, is to "help travelers discover Celtic spiritual traditions, the wheel of the year and a reconnection to our souls journey. Our visits include stone circles, holy wells, ancient woodlands, as well as meeting musicians and poets in the most beautiful parts of southwest Ireland."

Born and raised in Co. Kerry and now based in the Boston area, Joe is a popular local storyteller whose wit and wisdom will amplify your discovery of spiritual Ireland.
